Governance and Administration

Radha Madhava Adarsh Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya (RMASM), located in Nambol, Manipur, operates under a structured governance and administrative framework to ensure effective management and academic excellence.

Our website: www.radhamadhava.net

Founding and Evolution:

Established in 1973 by the esteemed Sanskrit scholar H. Shyamkishore Sharma (1926-2012), RMASM has been a beacon of Sanskrit education in Northeast India. In 2009, the institution was elevated to the status of "Adarsh Mahavidyalaya," reflecting its commitment to exemplary standards in Sanskrit education.

he Mahavidyalaya is affiliated with the Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi, which operates under the Ministry of Education, Government of India. This affiliation ensures that RMASM adheres to national academic standards and benefits from the resources and guidance of the central educational authority.

Administrative Structure:

The administration of RMASM is overseen by a principal, who is responsible for the institution's academic and operational leadership. As of the latest available information, Dr. Buddheswar Sarangi serves as the Principal In-charge. The administrative office can be contacted via email at rasalaya@gmail.com.

Governing Body:

The institution is managed by a Governing Body, which includes members responsible for making strategic decisions, policy formulation, and ensuring the Mahavidyalaya's objectives are met. This body plays a crucial role in maintaining the institution's standards and addressing administrative matters.

Recent Administrative Activities:

In June 2024, RMASM announced vacancies for guest teachers and office assistants for the academic session 2024-2025, indicating the institution's proactive approach to enhancing its academic staff and administrative functions. Through its structured governance and dedicated administration, Radha Madhava Adarsh Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya continues to uphold its mission of promoting Sanskrit education and contributing to the cultural and academic landscape of the region.